1. On 11 July 1954, a high-wing monoplane, occupied by two officers landed at the field. The officers inspected the field and subsequently the aircraft took off again.
2. Until 25 August, sheep were observed grazing at the field, which was guarded by two civilians. Rumors on the improvement of the field were no longer heard. In its present condition, the field apparently is unsuitable for military aircraft.

Comment. There were no changes in the status of Mahlwinkel airfield during the period of observation.
